The vineyards

Trebbiano d'Abruzzo from medium aged vineyards cultivated in Guyot shape, with low production yield on loose soil structure.

The winemaking

The grapes are sent to the pneumatic press for soft crushing, then the must is fermented in stainless steel tanks, with their indigenous yeasts at low temperature (12/14°C) for about 30 days. Small contact with the skins, unfiltered and clarification happens by decantation.

Ageing

In stainless steel tanks on the lees for about six months, followed by ageing in bottle.

Tasting notes

Straw yellow color, intense in the nose with hints of white flowers, white saline and ethereal. The palate is fresh, intense and fruity.

Food pairings

Seafood, cod, pasta with clear sauces, white meat.
